

PHP WEB DEVELOPMENT INTERN

DTT is proud of its previous interns and even more proud that many of them are now an important part of our team, as a full-time colleague or part-time colleague (next to school) for example. We are always looking for new talent to strengthen our DTT Team. We offer graduation internships and working internships. Does this sound appealing to you? Read on to find out more!

What we do at DTT?

We work passionately on a perfect mixture of technology, strategy, and creativity. DTT develops apps, websites, and games for iOS, Android, and web since 2010. Among our clients, you'll find solutions for the best companies, such as The Dutch Chamber of Commerce \(KvK\), Greenpeace, KPMG, ING, Fox Sports, Porsche, Erasmus MC and The Dutch Government.

At DTT, you work in teams on beautifully designed and successful (inter)national projects. As an intern, you have a lot of responsibility and influence on the projects. All projects, large and small, receive full attention at DTT, so we can use your help!

With who will you work?

At DTT, you are in close contact with all teams: Strategy and concept, UI/UX design, development, quality assurance, and project management. During projects, you will work with a multi-disciplinary team and you can always ask your colleagues for help if you are stuck on something. We prioritize creating a familiar and supporting environment, where you feel understood and valued. We are one team with more than 60 talented and friendly colleagues from countries all over the world, who all have the same objective in mind: To keep developing our company and come to amazing and high-profile deliverables.

Of course. you will be part of a specific team, the web team. The web team has 12 excited colleagues, all with a passion for development and with vast experience. Do you already want to see who you'll beat at a game of Call of Duty or FIFA? Have a look here.

What will you like about your work at DTT?

We understand that working time and free time are often seen as complete opposites, but this doesn't stop us from making working time as fun as possible:

- A challenging role in a fast-growing and dynamic company close to Amsterdam Central Station.
- Working in a cool office with the possibility to play games on your favourite consoles.
- Responsibility and initiative: as an intern, you have real responsibilities and the possibility to make a difference with good ideas.
- In cooperation with the HR department, DTT offers a trajectory in which you are provided with guidance on your professional development through regular evaluation moments and personal coaching.
- You have the freedom to learn and build on your own ideas. For example, there are multiple teams created as initiatives to improve current processes. There is also room for in-house development of good ideas from our colleagues, for example see our in-house AR-game Pirates & Privateers: Multiplay AR game!

- A decent internship allowance.
- A well-stocked kitchen, so you won't have to spend a lot of money on getting lunch.
- Besides that, you can enjoy our famous:
 - Asian-food-Tuesdays
 - Soup-Thursdays
 - Pizza-and-fries-Fridays
- Every week a cool Friday afternoon drink (till late in the evening).
- Once every few months a team social where you see DTT, your colleagues and Amsterdam from a whole different side.
- Inspiring knowledge sessions by enthusiastic colleagues or externals.
