

2023 PROMOS funding rates

Please note:

For Canada, Russia and the USA, two different mobility grants apply: for the USA the division into East and West by the course of the Mississippi, for Canada by the border between Manitoba and Ontario and for Russia by the course of the Ural.

Information on mobility with disability and/or chronic illness:

If additional expenses are to be expected abroad due to a disability and/or a chronic illness and other responsible agencies (e.g. social insurance agencies) have refused additional financial support, an application for PROMOS special needs can be submitted to the DAAD. If you have any questions, please contact the PROMOS team at RUB (promos@rub.de) at an early stage.

Notes on the calculation of PROMOS scholarships:

Scholarships are calculated on the basis of 30 days applied to a full month. This rule also applies to February. Half-month rates are paid from 10 days, full-month rates from 20 days. Arrival and departure days are not counted towards the duration of stay; only the time spent studying or working abroad will be considered (for study abroad including orientation week or days, if applicable, and exam period).

For examples of how to calculate PROMOS scholarships please see page 6.

Examples of how to calculate PROMOS scholarships*

Example 1: Study abroad from 7 February to 5 May 2023 in Australia

Funding period: 2 full months (March and April) + 29 days (24 days of February + 5 days of May) =
3 full monthly rates

Funding: Teilstipendium Aufenthalt = 3 x 450 € = 1.350 €
Teilstipendium Mobilität = 1.500 €

Example 2: Thesis abroad from 1 January to 18 February 2023 in Iceland

Funding period: One full month (January) + 18 days of February (i.e. a half-month rate) =
1,5 monthly rates

Funding: Teilstipendium Aufenthalt = 1,5 x 350 € = 525 €
Teilstipendium Mobilität = 750 €
