

Letter of Recommendation

To apply for a tuition-free place to study abroad within an exchange program¹ of the International Office of Ruhr University Bochum

(To be completed by a professor or lecturer of Ruhr University Bochum)

Completed by (title, name, position):

Faculty/Department:

Recommendation for the participation in an exchange program of Ruhr University Bochum for:

Name, First Name:	Student ID:
Area of Study:	Expected Degree:
Date and Place of Birth:	Country of Origin:

1. How do you know the applicant?
Please describe the time period and situation on which your judgment is based e.g. participation in courses, supervision of written work, ...

2. In my opinion, the candidate ranks among the top NN percent in her*his field of study:

5 % 10 % 25 % 50 % or not specified

3. How do you judge the ability to study and the potential with regard to the studies?

above average below average

Comments:

4. How would you rate her*his willingness to perform and her*his motivation to succeed personally and academically in a new environment abroad?

above average below average

Comments:

5. Based on the applicant's academic progress so far, do you expect that the planned stay abroad will contribute significantly to her*his academic development?

Yes No

Comments:

6. Is the applicant involved in social, political, etc. activities in addition to her*his studies?
To what extent does the student's commitment show that she*he takes responsibility?

What implications/potential can be derived from this for the future?

high commitment low commitment

Comments:

7. Overall assessment of personal and academic suitability for an exchange program:

8. Can you recommend the applicant for an exchange program of Ruhr University Bochum?

with particular emphasis

without reservation

with reservations

no

Date

Signature/Stamp

Note for the person writing this letter:

Please send the signed form directly to outbound@rub.de.

The document remains valid without a signature.